

ASD Strategies and Models

Ashland
Course #

6160 M11

Dates

June 12 and 13, 2017

Times

8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Instructor

Brenda Smith Myles, OCALI

Cost

$100

College
Credit

Required attendance at both days and payment of additional $175 for one (1) semester hour credit from Ashland University

Location

Pickaway County Educational Service Center (ESC)
2050 Stoneridge Drive, Circleville

Course
Description

June 12: Simple Strategies that work for students across the spectrum. A presentation that offers “simple strategies” for general education teachers working with students with ASD – particularly those who are included quite a bit of the day in the general education classrooms.

June 13: The Ziggurat framework encourages staff to consider the following: sensory needs of individuals; reinforcement; visual/tactile supports; addressing the task demands placed on individuals; and, then skills to teach. This covers the spectrum of ASD.

Registration,
Required
Deposit and Final
Payment

A $100 registration deposit is required in the form of check or money order payable to the Pickaway County ESC with completed registration form. Note: $50 of the $100 registration deposit is non-refundable. The Professional Development Services Form for Ashland University semester hour credit will be completed the first day of class and payment of $175 (check or credit card payable to Ashland University) will be taken at that time.

Additional Information

NOTES: Lunch will be on your own.